

“Wandering spleen is an uncommon disorder with a variable and nonspecific clinical presentation” (see page 354)

Exercise, dehydroepiandrosterone (DHEA) and mood change: a rationale for the “runners high”?

p. 335

Assessment of the association between post-tonsillectomy hemorrhage and weather conditions

p. 349

Force feeding and resuscitation of patients with advanced dementia: a public opinion study

p. 368

Vitamin D supplementation seems to improve fibromyalgia symptoms: preliminary results

p. 379