Matan Ben Tolila

Matan Ben Tolila was born in 1978 in Israel, where he currently lives and works. The work of Matan Ben Tolila focus on large-scale landscape paintings. His paintings linger on moments in which reality and abstraction co-exist. The scenery appearing in Ben-Tolila's paintings contains temporary structures of different kind and function, these are constructed with simple, almost schematic elements.

The work of Matan Ben Tolila has been displayed in solo and group exhibitions, such as: The Israel Museum- Jerusalem, Shesh-Besh, Petach-Tikva museum of Art, Moon walks- Noga gallery / Tel- Aviv, The Same Sea/A Different Coast, Galerie61, Bielefeld, Germany, Vacuum, Rawart Gallery, Tel-Aviv, Open Call for Snow, Gallery39, Tel-aviv, and more.

Ben-Tolila holds a Master's degree from Bezalel academy of Art& Design, Jerusalem and has been awarded the Excellence in Painting in 2006 by the Fine Art department, Bezalel, as well as the Excellence of the America-Israel cultural foundation award in 2005, 2006, and 2007.
